In Recognizing Him as King of Servia, the Czar's Government Says Regicides Must runished.

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR, TOO.

iranslation that His Note as Published in Belgrade is Almost Incomprehensible.

ST. PETERSBURG. June 18.-Russia's ady recognition of Prince Peter Karaeorgevitch as King of Servia is tempered by a direct hint that it is incumnt upon him to punish the assassins of King Alexander and Queen Draga. This is uncomfortably put in an of ficial note published to-day in the Gasette, formally recognizing the new vereign and welcoming his ascension. The note, after declaring that Russia had adhered strictly "to her standpoint of non-intervention in the internal affairs of the Balkan States," and mentioning the receipt of a telegram from the new King asking the Czar to recog-tiening the receipt of a telegram from the new King asking the Czar to recognize him as King, continues:

"The imperial government, while halling the election of the new monarch, scion of a glorious dynasiy, and wishing all success in the task he has so wentegon as the supreme nead of the Servian people, which is allied to Russia by ties of religion, can neve theless not refrain from expressing the confident hope that King Peter will be able to give evidence of his sense of justice and firmness of will by, adopting measures at the outset to investigate the abominable misdeed which has been committed, and to mete out rigorous punishment to those traitorous criminals who have stained themselves with the infamy attaching to regicides.

"Of course the entire Servian nation or army cannot be held responsible for the crime which revolts public conscience, yet it would be dangerous to Servia's internal peace not to exact explation for the revolution carried out with violence by the military. Such neglect would inevitably react in an unfavorable manarer on the relations of all the States with Servia, and would create for Servia serious difficulties at the very commencement of the reign of King Peter I.

"Their Russian co-religionists offer to God supplications for the repose of the souls of King Alexander and his consort, who have met an untimely end, and they invoke the blessing of the Almighty on the role of King Peter for the welfare and prosperity of the Servian people."

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR'S NOTE IS SOFTENED.

BELGRADE, June 18.—The telegram of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria to King Peter was published here today in a leafiet, but the strictures were so clurred in the translation that they were almost incomprehensible. The telegram, however, was otherwise so sympathetic that it was accepted here as being eminently satisfactory.

It appears that immediately after the assassinations the conspirators sounded the Cabinets at St. Petersburg and Vienna and received assurances of their approval of the election of Prince Peter. BELGRADE, June 18 .- The telegram
